HAYDOCK HERALD

BECAUSE SOMEBODY'S GOT TO DO IT

HELLO

Welcome to the first edition of The Haydock Herald. As well as all the news and gossip, this special edition also features the End Of Year Awards for 2001.

PANTO

As we enter the pantomime season, it will soon be time to begin casting this year's production of Cinderella, but with no obvious candidate for the role we will first be casting the ugly sisters. The auditions will be held by Graham Dunbar (HE'S BEHIND YOU!).

MANAGEMENT SUCCESS

Thanks and congratulations are in order for the company's continued success in it's management policy. The controversial MUSHROOM TREATMENT got off to a bad start, but is now a clear winner with people successfully being kept in the dark and fed on shit.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Kuntz-Dick

Lisa Renee Kuntz and Gary Wayne Dick plan to be married in a 12.30 p.m. ceremony July 14 at Carmel United Methodist Church in Carmel, Ind.

MISSING PERSONS

In a joint campaign with the MISSING PERSONS BUREAU we are running a series of ads in an effort to locate our missing loved ones this winter. If you have seen any of the following people could you please notify your Line Manager, thankyou.

Anne Marie Holding – Was last seen boarding a plane for the other side of the world. Limited funding and a lack of enthusiasm may mean that the search for her will be cut short. . . . Very Short.

John O'Hare – The search for the long missing John was called off recently when he re-appeared with his begging bowl looking for Christmas workers. However there are great fears that he may go missing again very soon, and that this time he won't come back.

SUBSCRIPTIONS

Unfortunately, our planned subscription scheme will have to be cancelled because so many people are being suspended and disciplined that it would be impossible to monitor exactly who owed us money and who didn't. The scheme may return after the end of silly season.

POOL CAR

As you are aware the NFT drivers' pool car (H Reg Cavalier) will soon be up for grabs again so book early to avoid disappointment.

TIME WASTING

It has been brought to our attention that management are accusing drivers of sitting about wasting time. Well with the R.R.U. now de-kitting vehicles so quickly, what else are we meant to do with our extra free time?

CHRISTMAS FUND

There have been some malicious rumours flying around the depot concerning the end of the CHRISTMAS SAVINGS FUND, but I can confirm that contrary to these rumours, the scheme will in fact operate again in 2002, but obviously in accordance with Sainsbury's bank rather than NFT.

COLLECTIONS

It has recently come to our attention that there have been no collections for a while, so it would be appreciated if somebody could either fall seriously ill, or failing that hand in their notice. Your help in this matter would be of great assistance.

Unfortunately the soon departing John O'Hare does not qualify as this refers only to collections where you put money in, not take it out.

If no obvious candidate is forthcoming then we will hold a collection for the Cleaner at Alfreton whose cat recently died quite horribly in a tragic cheese accident.

A cat yesterday.

COVER PRICE

There is a slight possibility that we may have to charge a cover price of £1.02, but this shouldn't be a problem as your 6 years' combined pay rises will cover it.

BREAKING NEWS

As we go to print there is a breaking story concerning one of our Shop Stewards, but unfortunately we can't tell you anything about it because it's a secret. So there.
